On the other hand, the fact that the β -phase is not observed in the β -phase region of the phase diagram (Fig. 1) may be due to the fact that the β -phase is not stable at the composition of the sample. The β -phase is stable at the composition of the sample only at temperatures above 100°C. The β -phase is not observed in the β -phase region of the phase diagram (Fig. 1) because the β -phase is not stable at the composition of the sample at the temperature of the experiment.

A black and white photograph of a landscape. In the foreground, there is a body of water with some small, dark shapes that could be rocks or small boats. A line of trees and vegetation runs across the middle ground. In the background, there is a distant shoreline with more trees and possibly some buildings or structures. The overall scene is somewhat hazy or misty.
